PALMERSTON ELECTION – VOTE SATURDAY

Election day is Saturday 17 March with voting centres open across Palmerston between 8:00 am and 6:00 pm.

“We have six voting centres operating on Saturday at Bakewell Primary, Driver Primary, Durack Pre-school, MacKillop College, Palmerston College and Sacred Heart Primary School,” NT Electoral Commissioner Iain Loganathan said.

“Voting is compulsory for all residents enrolled in the City of Palmerston council area and a full list of election day voting centre locations can be found at ntec.nt.gov.au , he said.

“For those residents who want to vote beforehand, there’s an early voting centre located at the Palmerston Shopping Centre (Coles/Target complex) or at the NTEC office in Darwin City, early voting is available until 6:00pm on Friday 16 March,” Mr Loganathan said.

To ensure your vote is counted, you must number every box on the ballot paper in order of choice starting with one.

More information can be found at ntec.nt.gov.au or call the Electoral Commission on 1800 698 683.
