Media Release

21 July 2017

Electoral roll closes 5pm, 25 July

TERRITORIANS voting in the 2017 NT Council elections need to be enrolled for their current address by the close of roll at 5pm on Tuesday 25 July.

"Enrolling or updating your details is easy and can be done online in a few minutes online at ntec.nt.gov.au or alternatively, enrolment forms are available from Australia Post and council offices," NT Electoral Commissioner Iain Loganathan said.

"There are 16 NT councils going to election in August and this gives Territorians the opportunity to have their say about who represents them in their local government area.

"Information about the elections, including council areas and details about who votes at the 2017 NT Council elections, can be found on the NTEC election website at ntec.nt.gov.au.

"Information about candidates running in the elections will also be available on the website after the Declaration of Nominations at 12 noon on Friday 4 August.

"Election day for the 2017 NT Council elections is Saturday 26 August and anyone can vote early from Monday 14 August," Mr Loganathan said.

Anyone interested in nominating as a candidate in the 2017 NT Council elections must do so by 12 noon on Thursday 3 August when nominations close. More information can be found in the Candidate Handbook available on the NTEC website at ntec.nt.gov.au or via <http://www.ntec.nt.gov.au/ElectionsAndReferendums/LocalGovernmentElections/Pages/Candidates.aspx>
