Recount for close seats finished

The recount for seats with margins of 100 or less votes for the 2020 Territory Election has been completed.

Recounts for the seats of Araluen, Arnhem, Barkly, Blain, Daly and Namatjira were undertaken today.

The results for each division, as they stand following the recounts, are available on the NTEC website.

The final count for the 2020 Territory Election will be conducted on Friday, 4 September following the expiration of the deadline for the receipt of postal votes at 12 noon.

There were 457 postal votes that had been returned to the NTEC as of last mail today that were yet to be counted.

The final postal vote count will be immediately followed by the full distribution of preferences in each division.
